The Juror is Lori Betz. Ms. Betz, a friend to all artists, has spent 25 years working exclusively in developing her talents as an artist. She has displayed her art in national and international venues. She studied at the University of Texas, Austin, and while there, she was awarded an artist in residency grant at Shigaraki Institute in Japan for a year. She studied and traveled with many art world instructors with the goal to learn from each of them something unique. A renowned, painter and sculptor, Ms. Betz owned her own Galley for 15 years and has now focused her work on sculpture with the opening of Betz Art Foundry. Recent sculptures can be found at the Pearland Chamber of Commerce and “the Allen Brothers” life size sculptures permanently installed in front of Houston’s City Hall.
